

Rural Estate Management and Professional Services

Elder & Froy offer a comprehensive range of services for rural and agricultural clients. Whether you own a few acres or several hundred acres we can offer professional advice tailored to our clients' specific requirements.

Elder & Froy is a firm of chartered surveyors and estate agents, which was established, by Fiona Elder and Stephen Froy in 1999. We specialise in sales and letting of property mainly in West Dorset and we have offices in Dorchester, Poundbury and Beaminster. In addition to sales and lettings Elder & Froy give property consultancy advice. Many of our clients own land and require advice on the management of their land and buildings. Elder & Froy are now able to offer the expertise of Ben Lancaster in giving such advice.

Purchase, Sale and Lease of Land and Rural Property

Elder & Froy will undertake appraisals for sales and marketing and give rental advice on farms, agricultural and amenity land, farmhouses and cottages. They will also give advice on the purchase of agricultural, residential and commercial property.

Ben Lancaster is a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors and a Fellow of the Central Association of Agricultural Valuers. He is able to offer friendly, independent professional advice on all aspects of rural land ownership and management.

Ben's experience includes sizeable farm building projects from design and budgeting to commissioning, negotiating compensation claims and rent reviews, grant applications for woodland grant schemes, all manner of rural valuations, the sale and letting of agricultural land and rural property as well as traditional estate management roles.
